Biography

Thompson's Gallery are delighted to be hosting Jonathan Robertson's first London Solo Exhibition.

Jonathan is well known in Scotland and England for his figurative compositions, inspired by a childhood spent in Banff, Scotland. His paintings are of the fishermen, farmers, crofters and fruitpickers who seek their livelihoods from the land and the sea. Jonathan's paintings capture a timeless quality of hard work, thrift, good humour and celebration.

Trained at Glasgow School of Art he has exhibited regularly at the Scottish Institutions and also Artist's Union Gallery Moscow, the Barbican, Smith Institute, Sterling and Mall Galleries. Jonathan has had many successful exhibitions in galleries in London and Scotland, his work can be found in art collections worldwide; notably Bon Secours Hospital, Edinburgh Hospital, Ernst and Young, Fife Regional Council, Kyle & Lochalsh District Council, Hilton Hotel, Loretto School, Motherwell District Council, Napier College, Scottish Housing Association, Scottish Television PLC, Glasgow Art Gallery, the Universities of Strathclyde and Stirling and Tennent Caledonian.
